There are many pagodas here. You will not be able to see the colors of Myanmar when you are not come here. Should not be short skirts, shorts. My guide was super information and interesting. She talked me through the history of colonial Burma as we looked at the old buildings, we went to visit temples in Kya Khet Waii, Pagoda Shwemawdaw and a lot of Pagoda with the charming and characteristic. Our lunch is very rich and intriguing. I would recommend this tour!

BAGO IS GREAT!!

25 Sep 2018

Bago is the most incredible place I've visited ever. The driver pick us up at the hostel at Yangon and we're going to Bago by a convenient car for about 1,5 hour. We arrive at the place where a reclining Buddha statue is there. We also visiting some pagodas which is the icon of Myanmar architecture. We see the monks around the places. All of the pagodas are so worth to visit even it has so many pagodas and I just enjoying to take a picture. The tour guide are really make sure that we are well-service. Thankfully they are very nice in english.
